Community Meeting

at the Plattduetsche Park Restaurant in the Ballroom
October 17, 2024—7:00 p.m.

Residents are invited to join in a discussion of issues of importance to our Franklin Square Community. This meeting is an opportunity to plan activities to address matters of concern to all who live in the community. Topics to be discussed include:

Saving our Franklin Square Theatre
Establishing a Historic District in our community – how and why
Solutions for making our voices heard by our local elected officials
Introduction of committees and invitation to join those committees

Please come to this meeting!

There is a growing sentiment that we need to get the help of our elected officials help to move Franklin Square Forward!

Let's work together to make our village the best it can be!

At the conclusion of the meeting there will be break-out sessions for:

- Discussion of articles from Newsday that identify the communities that have received New York State funding.
- Discussion of New York Forward Grant information. A committee could work on understand the next steps we will have to take as a community to apply for that funding.
- A small group to talk about the Franklin Square Theatre to research who reopened the Patchogue Theater and find out how they went about doing it.—maybe see what the numbers are, what kinds of shows the theater books?
- Discussion of Landmarking ordinances in other Nassau County towns and villages, compare to the Town of Hempstead ordinance, with a view to presenting a "beefed up" ordinance to the Hempstead Town Board.

If you plan to attend our meeting on Oct. 17th, please RSVP so we will have a large enough room to accommodate everyone. RSVP to Bill Youngfert at 516-775-7260 or e-mail at BYoungfert@aol.com.

Virginia Lane

(1916-2024)

The Society is saddened to hear of the passing of our beloved member, Virginia Lane. Virginia joined the Historical Society nearly forty years ago. When we started the Building Campaign for our Museum in 1993, Virginia immediately became active in the effort. She worked at the Annual Raffle, the giant garage sales, and became editor of this publication, the Newsletter. She was a tireless worker, and always a good friend and booster of Franklin Square. Virginia and her husband Bill contributed a great deal to Franklin Square over the years. They moved to the Morton Homes development off Dogwood Avenue in 1951, and were the original owners of their home. Virginia often recounted how her husband would walk from the Malverne train station to the construction site to check on the progress of the new home. Virginia and Bill raised their family in their new home. Bill was a veteran of World War II, and the Lanes were active in the veterans organizations here in Franklin Square. They were active parishioners at St. Catherine's, where Virginia remained a member of Christian Mothers for decades. She had many close friends in this organization as well.

We will always remember Virginia as a truly active person, with a positive attitude: she always remained young at heart. Virginia moved to the Arbors at Hauppauge in recent years, though she remained in touch with the Society and attended the dedication of the Museum at age 100, an achievement which brought her great joy. Virginia reached the age of 107, which is a record among our membership. We are grateful for her friendship and the example of a life well-lived.

Helping Our Neighbors

Good neighbors help each other out, so when the Garden City Historical Society was planning its forthcoming program on "Fashion Through the Ages" and were in need of mannequins on which to display their array of garments they contacted to us requesting assistance. We were happy to lend them our four mannequins to use in their upcoming event. On October 1st, Penny Hinderstein and her husband visited the F.S. Museum to pick up the mannequins. They took a brief tour of our museum and expressed their appreciation for our assistance in helping them mount their exhibit.

Gazebo Dedication

By Paul van Wie

On Saturday, September 21, the Society rededicated the Franklin Square Victorian Gazebo, which had originally been dedicated on May 21, 1978. The Gazebo had recently undergone a much-needed restoration. The Town of Hempstead repainted the wood trim, installed a new cedar shingle roof, and installed a new weathervane which had been donated by the Historical Society. The results were wonderful, and we are grateful to Supervisor Donald Clavin and Councilman Thomas Muscarella for their roles in bringing the project to completion. In fact, the Gazebo looks as good as when it was first built by our group in 1978 as a lasting reminder of the Bicentennial. In addition, the Victorian Gazebo has been declared the newest Town of Hempstead landmark, so we are glad that it will be preserved for the future.

At the rededication ceremony on September 21 (the day of the Fall Fest) we displayed photos from the 1978 construction and Dedication. We also welcomed public officials including Councilman Muscarella, County Comptroller Elaine Phillips representing Nassau County, Senator Patricia Canzoneri-Fitzpatrick, and Legislator John Guiffre. Our Historian, Paul van Wie, spoke briefly on how the Gazebo was built, and introduced Edward Detweiler who along with William Capoziello and Al Fam led the construction efforts. William Bartholdus, who had grown up in Franklin Square in the early 1900s, was the architect of the Gazebo
